Arlington Assists In School Dedication

The District No. 23, new school building at Prospect Heights, was dedicated last Sunday with an attendance of over 200 people from Arlington Heights, Prospect Heights and the surrounding neighborhood.

The Junior Drum and Bugle Corps of the Merle Guild Post No. 208, American Legion, entered the building and played several numbers. The Post Commander, Herman Baumann, presented the Stars and Stripes to the directors of the school. Three buglers played the Salute to the flag, after which the school children pledged allegiance to the flag. The entire ceremony was very impressive and the talent of the youngsters of the Drum and Bugle Corps was a revelation.

Mr. Albert Meyer, president of the board of directors, extended a hearty welcome, and introduced Mr. M. W. Bollman, assistant superintendent of schools, as master of ceremonies. Mr. Bollman introduced the other members of the Board, Mr. Ed. Mueller, secretary, and Mr. Leo Jaacks, both of whom said a few words.

Mr. Noble J. Puffer, superintendent of Schools, gave the dedicatory address.

Other speakers introduced by Mr. Bollman were, past members of the board, Mr. Fred Meyer, Mr. Henry Metz, and Mr. Henry Schaeffer; Mrs. Herman Garms, and Mrs. Maud Parker, both of whom attended school at the Old Red Brick school. Mrs. Garms in relating some of her experiences while attending the old school, explained that instead of getting water from a well close to the school, they had to walk quite a distance to a spring carrying an old water bucket. She also spoke to the children, and told them that they should appreciate the sacrifices that their parents made for them.

Mrs. Parker told about the old rail fences, and how they as children, used to try to walk the top rail, and very often fell off, especially when it was wet and mushy, and then had to go into school and stand in front of the fire to dry their clothes.

Mr. Bollman next introduced two of the former teachers of the old school, both of whom spoke briefly.

Interesting comments were given with reference to the new building by Mr. Godfrey Larson, architect; Mr. R. Whiteside, legal adviser; Mr. A. Johnson, contractor; Mr. D. Kennicot, P.W.A. regional director, and Mr. E. J. Sobwick, chairman of the Prospect Heights Improvement association.

A beautiful General Electric wall clock was presented to the board of directors by Mr. E. F. Rauen, in behalf of Smith & Dawson, the donors. Both members of the firm were unable to be present. Mr. Smith was confined to his home with an attack of the flu, and Mr. Dawson was being kept busy at the local office.

Due to the absence of Miss Genevieve Reynolds, the teacher, who was unable to be present on account of illness, little Joan Portman, who is the youngest pupil of the school, presented a desk pad and a desk fountain pen to Mr. Meyer, president of the Board of Directors, asking him to please forward them to Miss Reynolds. This little gift from the residents of Prospect Heights in a very small way signifies the esteem in which Miss Reynolds is held.

A word of thanks from the Board of Directors to George Schimming; Morton Grove Products Co.; Mr. Axel Johnson, and to the residents of Prospect Heights for the beautiful flowers which graced the speakers table and the piano.

The directors regret that they were unable to have the walks leading into the school building all cleaned and in perfect condition previous to the services, but since the building was only turned over to them last Friday, it was impossible to have all of these things completed in time. The building has been released by the contractor, but until the final inspection is completed, the children will continue to hold classes in the old school building. The school board expect the building to be finally released and classes held therein by February 27.

Flu Epidemic Is Improving

The present flu epidemic is improving is the good word of the local physicians this week. There have been a lot of people ill. Those who have recovered are saying to their immune acquaintances, "It's your turn now."

There is hardly a business place in town that has not been short handed. While those ill and generally obeying the orders of physicians "to stay in bed." there are a lot of those ill who are enjoying their "vacations."

Dr. Meisenheimer stated Wednesday that the present epidemic is only a mild one and not to be compared with a real influenza siege that seems to hit the entire world about every thirty years.

Dr. Elfeld reports in the same condition, "our people are fortunate," states Dr. Elfeld, "that all cases are mild and are nothing like the sickness in 1919.

Conditonis in the Arlington Heights schools are improving. From an absence list of 25 per cent last Friday in the high school there were only forty absent on Tuesday which is 8 per cent of the enrollment.

The younger children have not fared so well. All three elementary schools report that one fifth of the enrollment was absent Tuesday.

There was no school Wednesday on account of the holiday.

The flu epidemic has caused a postponement of the appearance of Maine high school orchestra here on March 12. The exact date will be announced later.

Chaplain Bach Speaks At Men's Club

Chaplain Bach of the 6th Army division was the speaker at the regular dinner and meeting of the Men's club of the Presbyterian church, Friday, February 17. He told of his experiences when chaplain in a prison where he had escorted condemned men down the last mile to their doom in the electric chair or on the hangman's scaffold. He also gave an interesting account of his work when attached to the Narcotic Division of the Treasury department.

The main point brought out by Chaplain Bach's speech was the great importance of early training and guidance of youth in the home and in the schools as well as churches. Proper guidance in early life will avert crimes in later life.

The next meeting of the Men's club will be held Friday, March 17. It will be Father and Sons night. A special program has been planned with Mr. John W. Gorby of Evanston as speaker. Mr. Gorby has been on the faculty of the Central YMCA of Chicago for 16 years. He served as an officer in the World War and is a past commander of the Lake Forest American Legion Post. He was the first national director of child welfare of the American Legion.

"Christianity" Is Subject Of New Study In Heights

A Bible Institute dedicated to the promotion of Christian knowledge, has been opened by the Lutheran church of Arlington Heights.

The Institute will be held in the library of the Lutheran parish building in two divisions once every week. The Junior division for pupils of high school age will meet on Thursdays at 7 p. m. and the Senior group will assemble on Mondays at 8 p. m., with the exception of the first Monday of the month.

Eight courses are offered to the student, each comprising eight lessons. In addition to the Bible a complete text book is provided and a simple test will be given to check the pupil's progress. Following are the subjects offered in the entire course:

Bensenville Lions Club Gets Charter

Itasca Country Club Scene of Impressive Ceremonies Feb. 14

Tuesday, Feb. 14, was a big night for Lionism in northern Du Page county. It was charter night for the newly organized Bensenville Lions club and an event of sufficient importance to attract many prominent Lions from the big city and neighboring towns.

The ladies were included in the plans and gave the event a social air. The commodious Itasca country club proved ideal for the purpose and nearly 200 sat down to the dinner in honor of Valentine Day the program favors were in the form of hearts.

Maywood Lions is the sponsoring club for the new club organization and was well represented. Its members with Lions from the Central club and International office provided a pot of spice during the supper program. The good fellowship displayed during the following two hours made evident to any strangers present that members of Lion club know how to play as well as how to work.

Ernest Beaumont, deputy district governor, acted as toastmaster. Mayor Wm. B. Peck gave a warm welcome to Lionism in behalf of the village of Bensenville. He said Bensenville needs Lionism.

Dalton Cole, president of Central club responded.

The presentation of the charter was admirably done by Wesley J. Leinweber, district governor of District 1-D. He is superintendent of Mooseheart and his service to Lionism includes director of Aurora club three years, president of that club, deputy governor two years. He is prominent in Boy Scout work and member of several educational associations.

The sincerity and purpose of the new members of the Bensenville club were clearly demonstrated by the talk of Pres. Koebbeman of the new club. He said that the business men of his town spent a long time talking about the need of a service club and gave a lot of thought to the selection of Lionism. Now that their dreams had become a reality, it was their purpose to use Lionism in every way possible to boost their town and make it a better community in which to reside.

Entertainment included Martin Bernett, the man with the clever hands. Dance music was furnished by Gilbert's Hill Billy orchestra.

Bensenville Lions club has 47 charter members.

The officers are: President, Fred W. Koebbeman; 1st vice-pres., A. R. Morris; 2nd vice-pres., Alfred P. Stressen-Reuter; 3rd vice-pres., Walter Lauman; secretary-treasurer, E. R. Moschel; Lion Tamer, O. L. Kresnicka; Tail Twister, Julius G. Frey. Directors, Denison F. Groves, Wm. B. Peck, F. C. Fenton, Dr. Frederick Oakes.

February 23, is when the children of Mt. Prospect and community, and any parents who want to come, are going to be treated to a free movie show at the Lutheran school auditorium, being put on by the local Lions club.

Attorney Denies Town Audit Is Correct

The board of auditors of Wheeling township held a special meeting with Auditor E. F. Laurin and Attorney Hugo J. Thal, Monday evening when the recently completed audit of the books of Supervisor Grandt was discussed in detail for the first time. Following a four hour session, no action was taken to accept or reject the audit. Nor was a formal demand made on Mr. Grandt for any alleged shortage.

The members of the board of auditors confined themselves that evening to studying the figures of the audit and considering the liability, if any, of the supervisor. No definite decision was made on any of the controversial points.

Attorney Frank Zaleski of Des Plaines retained by Supervisor Grandt to protect his interest theoretically tore the audit to pieces questioning not alone the procedure of the auditor in arriving at his figures, but also a number of statements therein that questioned acts of the supervisor.

Auditors Have No Power

The position taken by Attorney Zaleski, was:

The board of auditors is not a governing body and the only standing by law possessed by its members is the right of audit of the actual books of the supervisor to determine if the additions and subtractions are correct and agree with the bank balance.

The auditors have no right to question the place or bank or method used by the supervisor in the handling of his accounts.

The designation of a depository by the auditors only serves to free the supervisor for liability of any funds deposited in that bank. He can keep the money any place he desires, but he and his bond holders are personally responsible for money not kept in the depository designated.

The auditors have no right to fix fees for their services different than provided by statute. It was admitted that all townships of this section pay fees greater than the law allows.

The auditors by accepting and certifying payment of bills of supervisor for services rendered validate such bills and such payments and have no recourse to question them at this time. A private tax payer is the only person who can act.

In view of the fact that the auditor does not claim that the amount charged as interest on tax warrants is greater than the law allowed, the township was not wronged and there can be no claim against the supervisor for interest charged on his books, regardless of the amount actually paid to the holders of the warrants.

Attorneys Disagree on Fees

The collection of 2% treasurer's fee on township funds is claimed to be under the law according to Mr. Zaleski. Attorney Thal was unwilling to agree with him. Both attorneys admitted that the fee on road and bridge funds is 2% for first $2,000 and 1% for additional amounts. Mr. Grandt charged a straight two per cent.

Both sides agreed that some of the errors discovered by the auditor were purely due to bookkeeping and were not intentional misappropriation of funds.

E. F. Laurin defended his audit, stating that its sole purpose was to present all facts, as he found them, to the township board and that any action based on said audit was entirely up to the town board members.

The greater part of the evening was spent over a discussion of the alleged cash shortage of $606. Mr. Laurin informed the board that he was unable to reconcile any bank deposits with available records because the bank account was also used in Mr. Grandt's private business.

He obtained figures of receipts from various tax sources including the county treasurer and the books of Wm. Annen the local tax collector. Attorney Zaleski questioned the records of the latter and brought about a free discussion of a certain certified check for $485 issued by the Des Plaines bank in 1934 and given to Herman Garms to deposit in the town fund.

Resurrect Old Controvery

This check was supposedly issued on demand of a previous board of auditors to cover a shortage in the supervisor's books claimed by Mr. Grandt to be due to the failure of Wm. Annen to turn over to him the full amount of tax collections due the township. The differences at that time between the supervisor and tax collector were supposedly settled by a private agreement, which followed a session held in the state's attorney's office where Wm. Annen admitted that in order to clear his tax remittance reports, he had signed the name of the supervisor to a receipt.

Exactly what the $485 check has to do with the present shortage was not made exactly clear at the meeting Monday night, but the board adjourned at 11:30 and will convene again this Thursday evening.

N. C. Volz, Dies In California

N. C. Volz, former Arlington Heights business man, died February 15 in a Los Angeles hospital following an operation. Funeral services were held Sunday. The body will be taken later in the spring to the family burial lot of Mrs. Volz at State Center, Iowa.

Arlington Heights friends have received only meager information regarding details. He leaves besides his wife, a brother, Edwin Volz, N. Evergreen st., and a sister, Mrs. Jacob Harth, East Euclid st., Arlington Heights.

Mr. Volz conducted a feed and elevator business many years on the present park opposite the F. W. Gieseke store, which he later sold to Ed. Winkelman.

Postmaster In New County Organization

A Cook county postmasters association was formed Sunday at a meeting at the Hotel Sherman. William K. Lyon, Niles Center postmaster, was unanimously elected president. The only postmasters from northwestern Cook county present were Virginia Dodge, of Arlington Heights and August Grewe of Wheeling. The next meeting of the newly formed organization will be held at the Hotel Sherman shortly prior to the state convention which will be held at Rock Island May 24-26.

Speakers at the meeting Sunday were John Hart, postmaster of Ottawa and a director of the National Association of Postmasters; Frank Dalton P. M. of Aurora and State President; Joseph Daly P. M. Waukegan and State Secretary. W. L. Slattery Comptroller from Washington, D. C., was a guest speaker whose short talk was enjoyed before he left for his return to Washington. John McCann P. M. from Oglesby and a director of the State Association, also spoke a few words.

Town Clerk Leaves for Points West, South, East

Howard Helm is no Corrigan, but he left Tuesday night on the Santa Fe for Los Angeles and expects to return to Arlington Heights at the end of three weeks via New York City. After spending a week in Los Angeles, he will take a boat through the Panama canal to New York and then home. He was not sure that he will visit the world's Fair at both San Francisco and New York, but he is going to travel almost every direction on this hemisphere before he is back on the town clerk's job March 15.

Signers of Nomination Petitions Must Be Registered Voters

Perhaps as a first move to cut down WPA rolls, all men employed in that work were handed citizenship affidavits Monday, which must be signed and returned to the WPA office.

WPA work has been lessened in Arlington Heights during the cold weather and practically no work is being attempted at the park.

The village is looking forward to opening a project the first of March.

Benefit Club Demands Action on Relief Budget

The Herald is in receipt as we go to press of a letter purporting to be the attitude of the members of the A. H. B. club in Arlington Heights. As the communication is unsigned it is not being published.

However the club does ask that the relief roles be opened to the public in order that it might be learned whether or not some people are wrongly receiving relief and whether any discrimination is being made. The author of the letter takes the stand that any person on relief has the right to know his budget.

The letter states in part that the Arlington Heights Benefit club was about to ask the states attorney to investigate the conduct of the local relief office but has now withheld such resolution dependent on the town board of auditors acting in their behalf.

The Benefit Club will hold its next meeting March 3 at 11 State Road and invites any citizens to attend and join the club.

The writer states that any public official, township or otherwise who believes that said club is inactive, is making a grave mistake. He says in part, "the pressure behind the club is becoming greater every day and perhaps the lid will be unable to withstand the force that is being created within and will be blown off."

Barrington Asks For Postoffice Building

Barrington Lions club intends to find out why Uncle Sam has not built a postoffice building for that town. Many months ago a pork bill passed at Washington authorized a lot of postoffices in the northern part of Illinois. Arlington Heights, Palatine and Barrington were supposedly included on the list.

Many towns no bigger than these are boasting of new buidings. Barrington Lions have started an investigation to discover what has happened to its promised building.

Wheeling Street Named After A Soak

With the publication of an auction advertisement in last week's Herald, many inquiries were received as to the location of Portwine Ave. The Herald investigated and learned that nearly half a century ago a bachelor residing on that street imbided so much port wine that he received the nickname, "Portwine." The man died thirty years ago but the street remained.

A LENTEN THOUGHT

by REV. HARRY FRICKE,
Pastor of the Lutheran Church

Originally the word Lent meant springtime. The ancients thought of it as coming after a season bleak with winter, ushering in the first tender green of new life and growth. But of more importance than the grass of the field and the first balmy breeze of spring is the new birth which the true Lent means for a man's soul.

For Lent is the season of a story, a story of new life. That story comes to hearts bleak, deserted, barren, hopeless. That story calls forth peace, warmth, light and life. It is the story of Jesus Christ, sent by God into a world at odds with God. It is the story of God's love in action, suffering, dying and rising again to settle forever man's debt of sin. It tells of reconciliation, of pardon, and of peace for every soul through faith in the Christ of the Cross. Hope burns like a beacon light at the head of Calvary's Cross lighting the way through a troubled life and shining into and beyond the gloomy valley of death to a brighter eternity. That story is for all men, if they will only hear it and believe.

This story of Redeeming Love will be told at St. Peter's Lutheran church during the season of Lent. Special Lenten services every Wednesday evening at eight, beginning next week, will picture the events of Christ's great passion.

A series of seven sermons will be preached on the theme "Behold Your King." Following are the sermon topics and the dates.

"His Crown of Thorns"—Feb. 22.
"His Scepter: A Reed"—March 1.

Special Lenten Services At St. James Church

Station of the cross services, Fridays at 3 and 7:45 and Sunday at 2:30.

Plaid Silk Hat

Fashion is calling for color and more color. Milliners are answering the cry, with hats made of plaid surah or taffeta with bags to match. The picture shows how cheerfully the new gay plaid trend ties up with an otherwise all black costume. The use of plaid accents is apparent in many of the new dress and hat collections. Stripes are quite as important and many spring hats are to be seen trimmed with scarfs of vivid plaids or stripes.

Modern Apartment

A distinctive one-room apartment has creamy bleached mahogany furniture which shows to excellent advantage against the walls which are painted a pale French gray.

Hooded Coats

Winter coats with hoods will be seen when the snow flies.

Here are ten challenging things to use your money for during Lent: 1. To relieve human misery; 2. For the enrichment of your family's mind; 3. For the development of character and enrichment of personality; 4. For the enrichment of vocational relationships; 5. For greater educational and cultural advantages for the underprivileged of our community; 6. For the Christian Education of youths here and everywhere; 7. To seek and create beauty in our personal, church, community, and national life; 8. To secure social justice through the support of significant movements like the Boy Scouts, Anti-Saloon League, and the Christian Youth Movement; 9. To support institutions of good-will and welfare; and 10. To bring the gospel of the abundant life in Christ to all people everywhere. We invite you to worship in a Church where all of these things are conscientiously sought.

It Happened Here

Thursday night we had a violent electrical storm; lightning flickered across the windows with wierd effect on the refuse snow, huge wine casks rumbled and bounced overhead and driving rain slatted viciously against cars and hurrying pedestrians; there was cherry pie for supper, though that has no bearing on the weather report; however, we wish the weather man would include such items in his daily reports—they would be much better reading than so many mean temperatures and fair to moderates, with the added charm of accuracy; if you have cherry pie, you have it, no matter what happens to the isothermal curves or any other curves.

Of course the thermometer dropped to near zero with brilliant effects by morning; the windows were beautifully patterned with branching coral and long trailing fronds of sea weed, looking like pages from the Geographic illustrating a William Beebe expedition; clean, crisp curtains at the windows with the sun shining through the deep-sea pattern gave one all the comforts of a bathosphere. The refuse snow and humpy pavements were ice-coated and glittered painfully; jewelled coats of mail, broken and hacked, sprawled on vacant lots, mute testimony to titantic warfare: our familiar terrain became suddenly inimical and prophetic—so may it look, billions of years hence, its fissures and craters sheathed in interstellar ice . . . The too optimistic delivery man cached the sack of wild-bird seed and the feeding station under the back porch, hoping for the best which naturally didn't happen, neither the birds or the householder taking their meals there; a note left in the crotch of the big tree or in the wren's nest would have been an amiable gesture.

S'Amuser.

'Vintage Years' for Perfumes

Everyone knows that wines have certain "vintage years" when sun, rain and all other conditions combine to produce grapes which give an unusually fine product. These years do not come frequently and wine of a "vintage" year generally brings a much higher price. Few persons know that there are also "vintage years" for perfumes. These are seasons when climatic conditions are such that the flowers are more luxuriant, richer in fragrance, more abundant in variety. Many of the great perfume houses stock up in these vintage years, to protect themselves against crop failures, etc.

The Sister-in-Law

No relationship by law exists between a sister of a bride and a sister of a groom. The restricted definition of a sister-in-law is the sister of one's husband or wife, or the wife of one's brother. But popular usage ignores the restricted definition and extends the term to include the wife of one's wife's or husband's brother.

Old Fashioned Party

Passersby might have turned to gaze in surprise at the attire of guests seen mounting the steps of the B. T. Best home last Tuesday and Friday afternoon; for old fashioned capes, bonnets and dresses were in vogue for the time being, when Mrs. B. T. Best was hostess to two groups of friends to a lovely old fashioned party and luncheon and literary afternoon. The guests who came dressed in costumes dating back into the early 18 hundreds, were presented with favors after the luncheon, as was the custom in the "Gay Nineties" instead of receiving prizes. The sitting room was decorated for the occasion with many antiques, and old fashioned photographs, interesting letters over a hundred years old, old books and encyclopedias, made a tour of inspection most interesting. Literary games were then enjoyed by the guests, and a social time enjoyed.

Thursday Luncheon Party

Mrs. Neal Graham and Mrs. Vernon Sturm were hostesses to a group of thirty-two friends at a lovely luncheon at Mrs. Simpson's on Euclid and Rand rds., last Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Frank White Has 82nd Birthday

Mrs. Frank White was 82 years old Sunday and Mrs. Josephine Sieburg made her yearly visit that day upon this old time friend—a custom that dates back many years due to the fact that the birthdays of Emil Sieburg and Mrs. White fall on succeeding days, February 18 and 19. They have extended greetings to each other many Februarys. Out-of-town relatives and friends also made the day a happy one for the shut-in, who received gifts, a birthday cake, many cards and roses.

Mrs. White received many wishes for future birthdays. Sunday's event brought to the mind of aged women happy memories of the past and a realization that as one grows older physical afflictions are to be expected.

Cause of Dandruff

Dandruff is the hardened formation and accumulation of fat from the sebaceous gland. Sometimes the sebaceous gland produces less fat than the hair can absorb. Then the hair loses some of its gloss and appears lifeless. Sometimes the gland produces more fat than is necessary and the surplus is forced through the follicle to the surface of the hair itself. It then forms into a thin layer around the hair. That is dandruff.

Medical Doctors Prescribe Precisely

By C. W. Lussman
of Sieburg Pharmacy

The doctor spends his days and nights in a continual fight against disease, against real and threatened illness. He must not guess, he must know exactly what he should prescribe for his patient.

Study and research enable him to keep abreast of scientific discoveries. He lives his profession to a degree unknown by other men. It becomes second nature to him to check, to weigh cause and effect, to study specifics and to know results.

His exact prescriptions should be filled by a man similarly devoted, equally precise in methods and characteristics.

See your doctor at regular intervals for a health check-up. Confide his prescriptions only to a skilled druggist.

Garden Notes

At this time of year, a good way to beautify your home is to use flowering branches. One may bring in branches of cherry, pear, forsythia, grape or pussy willow and force them into bloom. Be sure that the tmeperature is above freezing on the day when the branch is cut. Immerse the branch in luke warm water for a few hours or perhaps over night. Set it in a jar or vase of warm water, and in time you will have a flowering branch.

If you have tried growing plants indoors without much success, you might try moving the plants about a bit. A vine or plant which will not blossom in one spot, may blossom in another, not because of sheer perversity, but because it needs more, or perhaps less light or needs to get out of a draft. Room temperature for the best growth of house plants is around 65 degrees. Foliage house plants should be out of direct sunlight. Flowering house plants must be in direct sunlight at least part of the day. In watering plants do not pour water on the leaves. The leaves should be washed off occasionally by themselves.

Garden Chairman Mt. Prospect Woman's Club.

Waokiya Camp Fire Girls Notes

February 10, the older group of Camp Fire Girls had a Valentine party and asked several boys to the party. We played several games such as Lover's Vocabulary and Betty Payne won the prize, which was a 10 cent dictionary. This prize was very appropriate. Also we played wink and a heart game and the prizes were won by Robert Lahtinen and Ardelle Wood. The prize was a small heart shaped box filled with small candy hearts. Then we played a game with cards and chips. Then we had a Valentine relay and group number one won the prize which was little cupie dolls made of chocolate.

The decorations were made up of red and white crepe paper strung around the room.

For refreshments each girl was to bring a box decorated in honor of Valentine's day. In each box was enough food for two people, the boy and the girl.

February 11, several girls went downtown to the Goodman theater and saw a play just like the movie "Alice In Wonderland." It cost them very little for what they saw.

February 17 was strictly a business meeting. There were eight girls present. Old business, as well as new business, was plentiful. The most important business was a discussion on an event to occupy our time for the next five weeks. This will be a pleasant surprize to the community and will probably take place in about four or five weeks.

Scribe, Ardelle Wood.

Ottawa Bowlers Offer Chance For Revenge

A couple of weeks ago a group of bowlers, sponsored by the El Reno Cafe, accompanied by a very choice group of cheer leaders, traveled en masse to Ottawa, Ill., to show the Ottawa Schlitz All Stars how to bowl. For some reason the "No'therners" fell down and lost by some 500 pins.

They will have a chance at revenge, however, as the Ottawa team will give them a return match at Hoppers' Recreation bowling alleys here in Mt. Prospect next Sunday afternoon, starting at 2 p. m.

South Church Players Rehearsing "Ba Thane"

Play Scheduled for March 5th Production

The South Church Players are now rehearsing for their next play, "Ba Thane" which is to be produced Sunday evening, March 5. Illnesses have threatened to make a second postponement of the play necessary but the cast now hopes to be ready at the scheduled date.

The play, "Ba Thane," is a one-act play of Burma written by Edna Baldwin, while she was a graduate student in one of Fred Eastman's drama classes. The play is vividly realistic, not hesitating to present something of the raw side of life in a backward country being exploited by unscrupulous commercial interests. The courageous faithfulness of the Christian Missionary is portrayed dramatically but without sentimentality.

The cast for this production includes Ray Salzman, Jr., in the title role; Florence Angell, Billee Jean Gehringer, Harriett Willson, Edwin Ira Stevens, Harold C. Durland and Donald D. Florence.

The play is being sponsored by The South Church Guild with Dorothy Durland as production manager and Ray Fenton in charge of directing. Those who saw the players in last year's production, "Release," are assuring others that they will not want to miss this year's dramatic event. There will be no admission charge. A free-will offering will be received.

Golden Chains as Straps for Gown

Lelong's heavy silk crepe evening gown, entirely plaited, with bodice upheld with slender golden chains which continue around the waist has been selected by several smart women, including Madame Champin, who has it in bright pink, like the model, Madame Jacques Fabry, in bright blue and Princess de Faucigny-Lucinge in ultra-marine.

"Coquille d'Or," an attractive model in dull silk crepe for the sheath skirt and the silk lame for the halter bodice, has also found favor with private clients who have ordered it in brown and gold—the color of the model—as well as in black and gold and bordeaux and gold.

Indians Expert Tanners

Few animals have escaped the experimenting itch of the tanner. North American Indians are reported to have preserved the skins of 150 different species of animals. Even the skins of the seal, walrus, ostrich, alligator, snake, frog and shark have been tanned commercially. Bird and rodent skins are usually too small and fragile for wear. A morbid historical reference also excludes human skin from commercial tanning, although there is evidence that the weird ritual has been performed. In 1829 the skin of the murderer William Burke was preserved after his execution in Scotland.

MRS. ELISA PAHL

Mrs. Eliza Pahl, nee Wienecke, was born at Palatine, Ill., June 24, 1859. She was baptized in infancy and confirmed in St. John's Evang. church of Plum Grove. She was married to Mr. Detlef Pahl of Palatine in 1898, who preceded her in death January 6, 1915. With the exception of a few months, Mrs. Pahl resided in Palatine all her life. The last seven years she was afflicted with a rheumatic condition that caused her great pain and rendered her quite disabled at times. She passed away at her late home, 224 Slade st., Palatine, Wednesday, February 15, 1939, at the age of 79 years, 7 months and 21 days. The deceased was a member of St. Paul's Evangelical church of Palatine, and one of the charter members of the St. Paul's Ladies' society.

She leaves to mourn her departure her sister, Mrs. Minnie Armstrong, her brother, Henry C. Wienecke and her brother-in-law, Mr. Armstrong, all of Glencoe, Ill.

The funeral was held February 19, at Palatine, Ill. Services were conducted by Rev. John C. Voeks at St. Paul's Evangelical church. The music was furnished by the organist August Stelling, the chorus of St. Paul's Ladies Society and Orville Wente. Interment was made at the north side cemetery.

ANTON ZUELSDORF

Anton Zuelsdorf, 84 years old, a Palatine resident over thirty years, suffered a light stroke February 15, gradually growing worse until he passed away early Monday morning. The funeral is being held at St. James church, Arlington Heights at 9:30 Thursday morning.

Anton Zuelsdorf was born January 18, 1855 at Seganace, Germany. He was united in marriage to Miss Nellie Gruse November 22, 1878. She preceded her husband in death ten years ago.

The family came to America in 1890, settling in Lombard, Ill. Two years later Mr. Zuelsdorf became an American citizen. He was a stone mason by trade and engaged in that business, both at Lombard and at Palatine where he moved in 1908. As the years began to pile up and arduous work became difficult,, he became a crossing watchman at the Chicago ave. crossing, continuing that work eleven years.

January 18, of this year, he had the privilege of being surrounded by all of ihs children, the occasion being his 84th birthday, which was celebrated at the home of his son, George.

There remain five sons, Albert, Gainer Park; August, Blue Island; Frank, Round Lake; Bernard, Barrington; George, Palatine; three daughters, Mrs. G. H. Kuhlman, Barrington; Mrs. J. Clark, Arlington Heights; Mrs. Leo Zimmer; 24 grandchildren; 16 great grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. Rose Hamling and Mrs. Ida Zuelsdorf, both of Lombard, Ill.

CARD OF THANKS

Our recent sad loss leaves us with grateful hearts toward neighbors and friends. Their comforting expressions of sympathy and thoughtfulness will always be remembered.

The Hahnfeldt Family.

IN MEMORIAM

Henry Mensching, Jr.—In memory of our dear son and brother who passed away one year ago today, February 24, 1938.

Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just to the end of his days,
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
A beautiful memory he left behind.

He had a nature you could not help loving
A heart that was purer than gold;
And to those who knew him and loved him,
His memory will never grow cold.

Loving Parents and Sister.

QUESTIONS THAT ARE ASKED ABOUT BANKING

"Is it important to write checks carefully?"

OUR answer to this question is emphatically "yes"—for your own protection. Here are a few simple, but important, rules:

Never write in pencil! Be sure the date is correct with the month spelled out. See that the amount, as spelled out and in figures, agrees and is legibly written. Fill in all blank spaces, particularly the amount lines. Never erase! Write a new check and destroy the spoiled one. In signing checks use the same signature on file at your bank. Never sign blank checks! Make them payable to "cash" or "bearer" only when you personally present them at the bank. Safeguard your blank checks—for your signature might be forged on them. Guard your cancelled checks.

Careful observance of these rules enables us to give you greater protection for your deposited funds.

Taking the SORROW out of BORROW

Benjamin Franklin said, "He that goes a borrowing goes a sorrowing."

That depends upon where you borrow. Those who have been forced to borrow on harsh terms and at high rates of interest have nearly always found sorrow.

On the other hand, our Personal Loan Department has taken all the sorrow out of borrow. You can, if you are deserving, secure a loan of any reasonable sum from this bank at the legal rate of interest and pay it back in convenient monthly installments. See us about it.

What's on the SCREEN This WEEK to new track record in "Stablemates." Mickey Rooney rode a race horse to a new track record during a workout at Hollywood Park prior to the championship race as Wallace Beery stood on the rail and clocked the time.

It was the opening scene for "Stablemates," showing at the Arlington Theatre Sunday and Monday, which was filmed at Southern California's newest racing plant at Inglewood.

Spectators, touts, owners, handlers, trainers, riders and followers were all on hand to give the sequence the realistic color of a large track during the season. All of the long shot scenes were filmed on Sunday and Monday because of racing on the remaining days.

Another track, a replica of Hollywood Park, was constructed on the sixty acres adjoining the M-G-M studios, so that close-ups could be filmed there while the regular track was open to the public.

Mickey arrived back from Nebraska, where he had been working in scenes for "Boys Town," just in time to start the new picture.

"The Dawn Patrol"

spectacular drama of the Royal Flying Corps during the World war, which is coming to the Catlow theatre on Thursday and Friday, was put on forced-draft production schedule recently as the European war scare was at its height.

If, by any chance, England should have been drawn into another conflagration there would be no alternative but to discontinue the production, since five of the principals are British reserve officers and unquestionably would be summoned to the colors immediately.

The five are Basil Rathbone, David Niven, Donald Crisp, Michael Brooke, who in private life is the Earl of Warwick, and Melville Cooper.

Saturday night, for one night only, the feature attraction at the Catlow Theatre is "Artists and Models Abroad," with Jack Benny and Joan Bennett.

Four of the season's big hit tunes, will be heard in the Bing Crosby manner in the new comedy romance, "Paris Honeymoon," which brings Bing to the Catlow Theatre on Sunday and Monday. They are "You're a Sweet Little Headache," "I Have You," "The Funny Old Hills" and a novelty called "Joobalai."

At Des Plaines

a thrilling adventure mystery. "Arrest Bulldog Drummond" heads the double feature program Friday and Saturday at the Des Plaines Theatre. Co-starring John Howard and Heather Angel, this is the best in the "Drummond" series to date. On the same program, Kay Francis and Ian Hunter are co-starred in "Comet Over Broadway."

On Sunday, "Flirting With Fate" and "Dr. Kildare" open for a three day run. Joe E. Brown and Leo Carillo are the featured players in "Flirting With Fate." Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore are the stars in "Dr. Kildare."

An added event Monday evening is the announcement from the stage of the Des Plaines Theatre of the prize winners in the $250,000 Movie Quiz contest which closed December 31.

BIG PROGRAMS AT PAL THEATRE

The coming week will see some big pictures at the Pal theatre, Palatine. Starting off with the Great Waltz Friday and Saturday, Brother Rat and Secrets of a Nurse, are the features on double programs for Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Pal theatre patrons were never offered a bigger bargain night show than Deanna Durbin in Mad About Music which will be shown Wednesday and Thursday. Stablemates comes the following Sunday.

DEMONSTRATE BETTER MEAT MENUS

New Menu Ideas by Martha Logan

A demonstration by Martha Logan, home economist for Swift & Co., "The Meat Makes The Meal" will be given Thursday afternoon, February 23, at 2:00 p. m. at the Mt. Prospect public school auditorium.

Miss Logan will give a program of new meat menu making ideas. She will present the actual garnished food trays to illustrate her suggestions for breakfast, luncheon and dinner. This is such an unusual and new type of demonstration that it will be interesting as well as helpful.

This demonstration is being sponsored by the Mount Prospect Parent-Teacher's association and the Mount Prospect Woman's Club, through the homemaking chairman of the P.-T.A., Mrs. Edwin Ira Stevens, and the American home chairman of the Woman's club, Mrs. R. A. Sandeen. It has been made possible through the cooperation of Fred Meeske, well known for quality foods in Mount Prospect.

The desire of these groups in sponsoring such a demonstration is to create and stimulate more scientific care of the families by a more complete knowledge of the use of different kinds of foods. Women of neighboring towns are cordially invited to attend.

Knowledge From Travel

The following lines appear on the Washington, D. C., Union station facade: "He that would bring home the wealth of the Indies must carry the wealth of the Indies with him. So it is in traveling—a man must carry knowledge with him if he would bring home knowledge."

New Light Source Brighter Than Sun

10% brighter than the sun—that's the efficiency of a new light source now on display at the Chicago Lighting Institute, Civic Opera building, Chicago.

This new lamp isn't as large as a cigarette—actually it's only 1/16 in. in diameter and 1 in. long and consumes 1000 watts. Naturally, forced cooling methods are necessary, and the small lamp is enclosed in a large tube through which three quarts of cold water flow each minute.

The new light source is a quartz capillary tube containing a small amount of mercury under a pressure of 1200 pounds per square inch. The light produced is of the violet ray type, and is as powerful as that to be hed from awin ampere arc consuming 7,700 watts.

Carl Zersen, managing director of the Chicago Lighting Institute, says of this new lamp:

"It represents one of the biggest steps forward made by lighting engineers during recent years when we have come to look upon the unusual as commonplace.

Those engaged in the photochemical process industry such as photoengravers and makers of blue prints and enlargements, will find this new light source of great interest, since it offers far greater brilliancy than they have ever before been able to obtain. Its use on airplane landing fields and as beach lights, likewise, cannot be overestimated.

We here at the Chicago Lighting Institute will be very glad to show this new lamp, as well as many other recent innovations, to all who are interested.

Former Bensenville Editor Still Thinks Oregon Beats Illinois

Portland, Ore.
February 9, 1939

To Bensenville Friends:

Well, as you will notice by the above address, we have changed our address and we thought the best way to notify our many friends in Illinois, was to send a short letter for publication in the Register, as we know our friends still read your valuable sheet. As those who visited us last summer will know, the home we occupied was not large enough for our family of four, as my mother lives with us, so we decided to rent that home and get another that had more room. We are much nearer down town and the outer drive as well. Have a place with large lot, 2 walnut, 1 cherry tree, as well as grapes and berries. The front yard and along the side of the house is beautiful shrubbery. We were able to get this for the same as the other place rents for, so think we were fortunate. So much for our new location.

My mother and my sister went to California the 16th of January for a month's visit and are enjoying a little cool weather there, as you know by the papers that they had snow (or what they call a snow storm) down there. Should any of these westerners see what you had there a few days ago they would think they were at the top of Mt. Hood. We are having a little fine snow falling as I am writing this, but by noon it may be the sun will be shining and no signs of what the people here call a real touch of an eastern winter.

This is my second winter here and my fall overcoat still is hanging in the clothes closet and I am going around with my coat and vest open. I was really sorry that I could not have been there to assist the Kickapoo Chiefs when they met the Paddock Printers for I am sure with a few of my perfect score games it would have been a different story. We sure enjoy reading the Register which comes to us each Tuesday.

We can note a lot of important changes since we left Bensenville. We have all been so well and have enjoyed this place so much that we now believe here is where we will spend the rest of our days be they few or many and to any of our many friends there, we say as we told the friends at the farewell party at the church before leaving Bensenville, "You are invited to come and see us, one and all, but not all at once." We enjoyed a fine visit last summer with the ladies from there who visited with us and hope next summer to see more.

Please see that our address is changed on our paper to read 6426 N. Delaware st., Portland, Ore.

Your friends in deed,
Guy E. Sampson and Family.

This Week in Wheeling

LUCILE SCHNEIDER, Editor — Phone 40-R

The March meeting of the Child Health Station is scheduled for next Thursday afternoon, March 2. It is hoped that it will not be necessary to cancel the station because of sickness or weather conditions which was the case last month.

Mrs. Ray Lesch entertained her "500" club last week. Mrs. Arthur Fassbender led the ladies for first prize and Mrs. Oscar Laurance took the second. Mrs. Otto Utpadel received the consolation prize.

Because of the illness of Mrs. Fred Utpadel last week, she passed on her turn of entertaining their card club to her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Utpadel. Mr. Norman Grandt and Miss Dorothy Grandt were guest players. First prizes were taken by Mr. Robt. Utpadel and Mrs. Henry Grandt, while Mr. Norman Grandt and Mrs. E. Galitz won second place.

The regular meeting of the P.-T.A. which was to have been held this week, was postponed because of illness prevalent.

Having been forced to sell their home on Port Wine ave., to the Forest Preserve some time ago, the Gerschefskes have bought a new home in Des Plaines. The public auction sale which they held last Saturday, drew a large group of buyers and the goods put up for sale brought better prices than has been common at recent sales. We hope the Gerschefskes may find much happiness in their new home.

Mr. Joseph Bellmore, Sr., is visiting with his daughters in Chicago.

Miss Ruth Schmidt visited a cousin in Chicago, last week.

Mrs. Charles Balling invited members of the Ladies' Aid to her new home for a house-warming last week on Wednesday afternoon. Because of sickness only 14 of the ladies found it possible to attend, but those who did enjoyed the occasion very much, rejoicing with Mrs. Balling in her new home, with its many conveniences she had not known before. After being shown through the house the rest of the afternoon was spent playing games. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. L. Flentge. The house-warming also took on the nature of a shower, this part being unexpected on the part of the hostess. However, the guests had decided it would be well to offer some small practical contribution to the new home, as well as just good wishes.

Mrs. Wm. Utpadel had some friends in for a quilting bee last Wednesday and Thursday afternoons. Although some of the quilters were unable to help because of illness, there were enough to make the work light and to enjoy the fellowship.

Mrs. Leslie Behrens entertained a group of friends at a dinner party at her home on Sunday afternoon, as a birthday party in honor of her brother, Mr. Victor Haben.

The Morrison family were invited to Norwood Park Sunday afternoon, to help celebrate the birthday of a niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Utpadel and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Becker were invited to Park Ridge to help Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Behm celebrate their fifth wedding anniversary on Monday evening.

Those who welcome the early harbingers of spring should be glad to know that the cheery notes of the song sparrow were heard on Monday morning, February 20. It is hoped that the little fellow may find a snug place to hide from the cold blasts that are sure to come before spring will be here to stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Angel of Chicago, were guests at the Merry home on Sunday.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Erick Wenzlaff have received greetings from them mailed from New Orleans where they have been enjoying the annual Mardi Gras. Last week they called from New Orleans and talked to their family via long distance telephone, which was a pleasant surprise, especially for Erick, Jr. The connection was very good and voices all carried naturally.

A public card and bunco party will be held at the Riverside Inn next week on Friday evening, March 3, beginning at 8 p. m., sponsored by the Wheeling Chapter O.E.S. Tickets are 25 cents each which will include refreshments and chance on a door prize.

Wheeling public school called classes again on Monday with all teachers present. However, at least 40 children were still absent out of the total enrollment of about 125.

Two Village Tickets Framed At Wheeling

With the time for the filing of petitions at hand, two petitions with three candidates each for village trustees were circulated last week. Candidates on the first ticket filed are Messrs. Theodore Pieper, Frank Utpadel and Marshall Balling, while the other ticket carries the names of Messrs. Edw. Moeller, Earl Johnson and Harry Jaegerman as the candidates.

Dr. Gieske Returns From Important State Veterinarian Meeting

The fifty-seventh annual meeting of the Illinois State Veterinary Medical Association, was held in Springfield, February 16-17.

Among the 250 Illinois Veterinarians who attended this meeting was Dr. E. E. Gieske of Wheeling. He left February 15 for the two-day meeting where many timely veterinary subjects of an educational nature were discussed by nationally known members of the veterinary profession.

The program was such, that compares favorably with a short course in the newer knowledge of animal disease problems.

Sleeping sickness of horses, cattle diseases, plant poisoning, mortality of suckling pigs and diseases effecting household pets were in for most of the discussion, with consideration being given to nearly all of the diseases that cause losses among Illinois livestock.

North Chicago Defeats Wheeling 47 to 31

The Wheeling Aces were defeated in the home gym on Sunday afternoon by the North Chicago Rexes, a colored team, by the score of 47-31. The Rexes put on an exhibition of ball handling that is very hard to equal. O. Mitchell of the Rexes was the main cog of the Rexes team. He was the finest ball handler ever seen in these parts. O. Laurance turned in a brilliant performance for the Aces. The Aces have another game with the Rexes and the date will be announced later. Watch for it.

In the preliminary game the Wheeling lightweights were defeated by the Rexes lightweights by the score of 43-10. R. Hartmann turned in a brilliant performance for the Wheeling lights.

Watch for the date of the next North Chicago-Wheeling Aces game.

Congressional Views

By

Congressman

CHAUNCEY W. REED

LABOR RELATIONS ACT NEWS: Since the beginning of the session of Congress there has been considerable talk of a revision of the National Labor Relations Act. It is reported that Congressman Anderson of Missouri, who introduced a bill to repeal the Act will soon file a petition on the Speaker's desk to seek to force a vote in the House to discharge the Committee on Labor from consideration of the bill. Within the past few days there have been rumors that the National Labor Relations Board will soon present a complete revision of their rules in an effort to counteract criticism against the Board for its high-handed manner in administering the National Labor Relations Act. Regardless of whether or not the Board presents a revision of its rules, it is anticipated that Congress will take action at the present session to amend the Act in a way that will make it more workable and equitable to all concerned.

AN INTERSTATE DRIVERS' LICENSE BILL: Apparently the Senate of the United States is of the opinion that all of the states of the Union should have a driver's license law. We base this statement on the fact that on February 6, Senate Bill 25, which provides that "no person shall operate any motor vehicle in interstate or foreign commerce unless such person has in his immediate possession a valid license issued under the laws of the state in which the license was issued, and which law of the state must provide that no such license shall be issued except to persons passing an examination which includes a test of the applicant's eye sight, his ability to read and understand highway signs regulating, warning and directing traffic and an actual demonstration of his ability to exercise ordinary and reasonable control in the operation of a motor vehicle," was passed by the Senate and referred to the House for that body's approval. The bill has been referred to the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce. If it is passed by the House and secures Presidential approval, it will take effect 4 years after the date of its enactment thus enabling all states which do not have driver's license laws complying with the requirements above cited, to enact such a law.

ATTENTION: YOUNG MEN AGES 17 TO 22: The Commandment of the United States Coast Guard has just announced that a competitive examination will be held for appointment of cadets to the United States Coast Guard Academy. This examination will be held on June 14 of this year and is a strictly competitive examination open to all boys throughout the United States between the ages of 17 and 22 years who can meet the high moral, physical and educational requirements necessary for designation. Successful completion of four solid years of cadetship leads to a commission and a career in the United States Coast Guard. The course of study at the Coast Guard Academy requires the completion of work well in excess of that ordinarily necessary for a Bachelor of Science degree from a civilian institution. While the course is mainly professional, sufficient time is given to purely cultural subjects. The four years' course of instruction is basically scientific and engineering in character. Annual cruises aboard modern cutters to European and South American ports give an opportunity to check classroom theories by practical seagoing experience. Pay of a cadet while undergoing instruction is $780 per year plus an allowance for subsistence. After graduation a cadet is eligible for a commission in the Coast Guard as Ensign. Any boy, who is interested may receive detailed information by addressing, Commandant, U. S. Coast Guard, Washington, D. C. The writer decided to include the above paragraph in this week's newsletter in the hope that it might enable some young man to receive a fine education who otherwise might not be financially able to secure the same.

News from Springfield...

by BERNICE T. VAN DER VRIES
Representative 7th District
General Assembly of Illinois

When the Branson Resolution calling for a sweeping investigation of all of the departments of state government passed the House on Tuesday morning by a vote of 73 ayes and 72 nayes, probably the most surprised person in the House was Representative Branson, himself.

After sending out telegrams over the week-end to all the Republican members, it had been decided by Floor Leader Branson that the roll call for attendance should be the test as to whether there were sufficient Republican members present to proceed with the consideration of the resolution. As the roll call proceeded, it seemed evident that the House was about evenly divided so far as political faiths were concerned, with possibly the Democrats having the slight edge. For some unexplainable reasons more Republicans seemed to have been laid low by the "flu" than Democrats. Floor Leader Branson, therefore, decided to hold over until the next week the consideration of the resolution, but minority Floor Leader Adamowski had counted noses, too, and being thoroughly familiar with the rules of the House through his long experience as majority floor leader, pressed the point that the resolution was unfinished business and must be considered immediately.

Chair Is Overruled

The chair, under the direction of acting Speaker Representative Rennick, ruled otherwise. On a motion by Mr. Adamowski, followed by a roll call on the question of sustaining the chair in its decision, the chair was overruled. Long-time members, such as Representatives Schnackenberg, Sparks, Bruer and Searle said that this was the first time in their experience that the chair had not been sustained in a decision of parliamentary procedure.

Of course, after this defeat to Mr. Branson's plans it was necessary for the resolution to have immediate consideration. Three hours of oratory from both sides of the House followed. Question: Are votes ever changed by speeches?

Avoids Ambulance Ride

When the roll call began there were numerous explanations of votes by those who had not spoken either for or against the resolution in the beginning. Toward the end of the roll call the House chamber was as silent as a tomb. In the meantime, Speaker Cross, at home in Jerseyville ill with influenza, was on the telephone insisting that if the vote was a tie as there was a feeling among the members that it might be, that he would have an ambulance drive him 75 miles to Springfield to cast his vote. He urged that the roll call be delayed until the results were fairly certain. It was a dramatic moment when the tie was broken by the vote of a Democratic member from Freeport, Representative C. D. Franz, the vote otherwise being a stray party vote.

Representative Franz has long been known for his independence and it was rumored that because of his independence efforts were made by some leaders of his own party to defeat him in the last election.

Large Assignment

A large assignment is ahead of the committee of seven which has been selected from both sides of the House to carry on the investigation, although the feeling is general that most of the investigation will be centered in those departments of the state government where accusations of irregularities were made by Democratic factions in the primary election and the general election last year.

Investigations are popular at the present time in the Legislature and resolutions have been introduced providing for investigations of the milk industry, the St. Charles School for Boys and the Relief Administration.

Election Law Vote Delayed

Representative Sprague's election bill (H. B. No. 38) which passed the House several weeks ago, suffered an unusual setback in the Senate just as it was called for passage last Tuesday. A short circuit blew out all the lights in the Senate House just as the roll call began on his bill. Consideration was postponed because the clerk could not read the names, with the result that there were not enough members present on Wednesday for the two-thirds vote required on the bill which has an emergency clause. Undoubtedly the bill will be passed next week as it is non-controversial.

The influenza epidemic seriously interfered with the business of the General Assembly. Probably very little business will be transacted until after the Chicago Primary election, as there will be only a short session next week and no session at all the week following that.

Meaning Of Unemployment State Insurance

(Third of a series of five weekly articles on "What Unemployment Compensation Means to Illinois Workers")

Cash benefits to unemployed persons from the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Trust Fund, payable after July 1, will be limited to those workers who have earned wages in "covered" employment in this State. That is, only those who have worked for employers who were required to make contributions for their workers under the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Act will be eligible for benefits.

Benefits will not come to a worker as a matter of charity, relief, or as a hand-out, but because the worker had a job and because that job was insured under the Illinois Unemployment Compensation Act. Benefits are based upon past earnings and claims will be paid on the same principle that regulates the payment of life, health or accident insurance claims. One difference, however, is that employers are required to insure their workers, and that the State—not a private insurance company—handles the payments.

In order to be eligible when benefits are payable after July 1, 1939, a worker must, first of all, be unemployed at the time he files a claim. He must also have been working in covered employment—that is, he must have been insured by his employer—at some time since July 1, 1938.

Merely being in covered employment at some time since July 1, 1938, however, does not guarantee the worker's eligibility. To become eligible he must have earned, during a specified time, or "earning period," which is called the "base period," a certain minimum amount. This base period, for those who apply immediately after July 1, 1939, will be the period between January 1, 1938 and March 31, 1939, a period consisting of five calendar quarters. Wages earned during this period will be used to determine eligibility, and both the amount and duration of benefits.

Employers, in paying their contributions, are required to file wage records showing the exact amount earned by each employee during each calendar quarter. There are four calendar quarters a year.

Eligibility will depend upon the following:

1. A worker must have worked in covered employment at some time since July 1, 1938.

2. He must be registered for work at an office of the Illinois State Employment Service.

3. He must file a claim for benefits.

4. He must be available for and able to work. (He is required to accept suitable employment when offered by the Employment Service).

5. He must have a waiting period of three weeks.

6. He must have earned 16 times his weekly benefit amount in the first three of the last four completed calendar quarters.

This last eligibility test will be made as follows:

First, the weekly benefit amount must be determined. Find the calendar quarter in the "base period" during which wages were highest (but do not count more than $390). Divide this by thirteen (the number of weeks per quarter), to get the full time weekly wages. The weekly benefit rate will be one-half this amount. Suppose the highest quarterly earnings were $260. The full time weekly wages would be $20 the weekly benefit amount would be $10.

Second, to be eligible for benefits a worker must have earned 16 times this benefit amount in the first three of the last four completed calendar quarters. In the case cited above, should this worker apply for benefits during July, August or September of 1939, he must have earned 16 times $10, or $160 in the period between July 1, 1938, and March 31, 1939.

A worker must pass all these tests to be eligible for benefits. Before he files a claim he should make these tests himself. This will save time, trouble and disappointment.

All unemployed workers, and those who think they will be unemployed next summer should go immediately to the nearest office of the State Employment Service and register for work. These offices will help them look for employment, now. And if already registered, they will save time and inconvenience later when they file claims for jobless benefits after July 1, 1939.

Juvenile Sandals Favor Open Toes

Mother's acceptance of cutout sandals is leaving its imprint on daughter's footwear fashions. Outstanding among the juvenile shoes for the coming spring are numerous versions of the toeless style. Open sides and slashed heels go along with the open toes just as they do in adult feminine styles. Patent leather is being stressed in line with mother's preference and there is much interest in colored soles and heels, the width of the soles suggesting the platform theme.

When it comes to hosiery fads, mother will have to do more than accept ombre shadings or embroidered heels to keep up with her daughter. The latest fad to appear in children's anklets is the "Stop and Go" idea. One of the socks has the word "stop" embroidered in red on the elastic cuff while the mate displays "go" in green letters.

"Plenty For All" League Grows

States of Mich. and Oregon To Organize Local Units; Chicago Organizing Too

The proposal of the American Plenty For All League to provide jobs for all unemployed at not less than $200 per month as announced in this paper two weeks ago has met with immediate and enthusiastic response. Letters of inquiry, regarding the plan, from many sections of the territory covered by this paper have poured into the national headquarters of the League at 100 No. LaSalle st., in Chicago.

Right now negotiations are being carried on with interested parties in Michigan and Oregon for organization of local units in those states. It is expected that these will be concluded in a few days and that a public announcement of details will be released by the national office.

In Chicago, meetings have been held in various sections of the city. This week a big meeting was held on the south side at 1556 West 79th Street on Wednesday night. A north side meeting is scheduled for tonight (Thursday) at the Social Turner hall, 1651 Belmont ave. Interest in the movement continues unabated.

P. D. Jones, South Side Organizer

Mr. P. D. Jones, proprietor of the Reliable Shoe Repair Service, at 7908 So. Racine ave., has been appointed organizer for the far south side of Chicago. Mr. Jones has had much experience in organization work. During the dark days of the depression he organized the 100% Recovery club. This organization embraced 800 wholesale and retail merchants. Later he brought into existence the National Recovery program. The program of this organization coincides with the principles of the American Plenty For All League. The members of this organization will be merged with the American Plenty For All League. This is the first of a series of such consolidations on the part of organizations working in harmony with the Plenty For All League. Mr. Jones is pressing vigorously the organization of additional units on the south side. He is an enthusiastic and untiring worker.

The program of the League includes the working out of a balanced relationship between industry, transportation, agriculture and all the other walks of life. The League's program believes that there must be a sound economic balance between consumer and producer. This balance should abolish unemployment, poverty, and waste. The best national defense is not new armament, but a social order based on justice and opportunity for all our citizens everywhere. A better social order must include economic justice, adequate housing, health and opportunity for the pursuit of those interests which make for genuine happiness.

Farmers should be interested in the American Plenty For All League since it has placed itself on record as favoring for the farmer, an adequate farm with thoroughly modern equipment; fine foundation stock, both in seeds and livestock; conveniences and organization that will shorten his working day; and returns on his crops that will free him from any further insecurity.

The achievement of this program requires co-operation both of a corporate nature and of personal interest. For that purpose those that are interested are invited to fill out the blank printed below and mail it to the national headquarters of the League. There is no financial obligation.

In return for this you will receive from time to time information of the League's activities and program. Do it today while you think of it.

Safetygrams

BY FRED W. BRAUN
The Safety Man

A few weeks ago in this column I suggested that horns be eliminated from all motor vehicles. Some of my friends, in commenting on this, said the idea was too radical—that such a change would immediately cause a tremendous increase in accidents.

Would it?

Whenever weather conditions are extremely bad for driving, such as fog, sleet, ice and snow, communities pride themselves that no motor vehicle fatalities have been reported during such a period. The reason is this: all drivers become more careful when driving conditions are bad. If the elimination of the horn would control some of the thoughtless driving habits by slowing us down, then the idea cannot be too radical.

A LECTURE on Christian Science
Entitled
Christian Science:
Its Unlimited Possibilities
by
Robert Stanley Ross, C. S. B. of New York City

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts

Mr. Ross addressed a large audience at the Christian Science church, Barrington, Ill., Tuesday evening. He spoke substantially as follows:

My friends, would you like to know how to be well and happy? Would you like to know how to be free from fear and worry? Would you like to know how to be sure that all is well with your family, your friends, and your neighbors? More important still, would you like to know how to be kindly disposed toward all mankind and have them kindly disposed toward you? Of course you would, even while an unspiritual point of view may be arguing that all this would be an impossible attainment outside of heaven; impossible, that is to say, prior to the change called death.

Divine Law Always Available

Ah! but it is not an impossible attainment. There is a way, and it is the purpose of these lectures on Christian Science to make it plain. Does mathematical law, for example, place any obstructions, either here or hereafter, in the path of those who would scale the heights of numerical achievement? Does mathematics teach that there will be anything possible in the hereafter that is not possible now? Certainly not! One need only to bring enough alertness, obedience, and application to bear in order to prove this to be true. The same rule holds good with reference to the demonstration of divine law, which is the law of unlimited possibilities to all who progressively respond to its sacred, its imperative demands.

In other words, Christian Science has come to show mankind that divine law is the law of health, joy, and blessedness to present human experience.

Contrary to common belief, there is no mystery about Christian Science healing. Anyone can understand it. The clearer one senses its unlabored simplicity, the easier it is for him to utilize its divine Principle. Through this Principle, the healing power of God becomes available to all as certainly as it was to those Biblical characters whose lives we contemplate with admiration and reverence. Surely, "God is no respecter of persons"! He loves you and me as impartially as He loved them. The great difference between them and us is due, not to divine favoritism, but to the fact that they both recognized that God loved them and prayerfully rejoiced in it; whereas we do not. We are inclined rather to look to the future in which to utilize the law of ever-present Love; whereas they knew, in words of Paul, that "now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation."

Spiritual Discovery

You and I are living in times of thrilling adventure and amazing discovery. We are living in what is commonly referred to as a scientific, inventive age.

In view of a world-wide tendency to reduce human modes to a systematic, workable basis, should we not be prepared to welcome the very Science of Life, the Science of being, or Christian Science? Not long hence, the world at large, still judging (reasoning) according to the appearance, will wake to the fact that Mary Baker Eddy has not only founded and led a great religious movement, but that she has accomplished, in the realm of spiritual discovery, that which entitles her to pre-eminence amongst the scientifically great of all ages.

Mary Baker Eddy believed there was a divine law governing in perfect harmony the real or spiritual universe including individual, impersonal, spiritual man. She believed that, if invoked in meekness and love, this divine law would bring about health, happiness, peace, and a more abundant life in present human experience.

Unlike all others, however, Mrs. Eddy's discovery transcended the realm of sight and sound. It lifted her consciousness above the dream of time into eternity, and beyond the sense of space into infinity. She learned that the divine Principle, starting point, or working basis of Christian healing was the absolute truth about God, man, and the universe, namely, infinite good or present spiritual perfection. She saw that what the Bible refers to as creation having taken place in seven days, was simply the author's highly figurative, typically Oriental way of saying that self-existent Truth or divine reality dawns upon individual human consciousness—sometimes slow, sometimes fast—in seven periods of spiritual unfoldment, the seventh day symbolizing ascension, or consciousness rising entirely above matter or material belief, into the allness and everywhereness of Spirit.

Revelation, Not Creation

Creation, then, is really revelation. It is the progressive dawning of the light of ever-present good upon your consciousness and mine until the mental darkness disappears entirely, even as material darkness recedes and finally disappears before the light of day. The veil, be understood, is not on God; it seems to be on us.

Christian Science Unique

All of which should help to make clear what I mean when I say that Christian Science is the only religious and medical system known to men that does not presume to do something with, to, or for matter. Instead of trying to make bad matter good, sick matter well, old matter young, unemployed matter employed, and dead matter alive, Christian Science declares, in view of Mind's allness and everywhereness, that man, the idea, image and likeness, or reflection of divine Mind, God, has nothing whatever to do with matter either one way or the other. It declares that man is, like God, incorporeal, inorganic, spiritual; hence, always above and beyond the reach of discord and disease, always safe.

Now, all of us need to understand clearly that fear and worry, wrongdoing and sickness, unemployment and want, discouragement and failure, disaster and death—all evil—are associated, not with your real self, but with a material, corporeal, bodily sense of existence claiming to be you, which sense must be unreal if, as the Bible tells us, God is true and material sense a liar. Accordingly, our fundamental need is never the getting of material health, happiness, home, friends, employment, money, and so on, but the giving up of the belief that man is either good or bad, sick or well, poor or prosperous, alive or dead, in matter or a material body.

The moment one recognizes that man, as God's image and likeness, is not a mortal with either good or bad bodily parts, but the invisible, impersonal, impalpable idea of divine Mind, God, he will find his prayers answered and his human needs supplied, whatever they may seem to be. Truthfully, it can be said that the less we try to be well in matter, the less we shall be liable to sickness in matter. In this way, we shall begin to realize our fondest hopes. The Scripture reads, "No good thing will he (God) withhold from them that walk uprightly;" that is, from them that think and live above a selfish, personal bodily sense of existence.

Allness of Spirit

This practice of trying to change discordant matter into harmonious matter, when the truth is that there is no matter, hinders instead of helps those who are in need of healing. God, Spirit, Mind, made you spiritual and perfect; hence spiritual and perfect you will always be, sense testimony and human experience to the contrary notwithstanding. This unity of cause and effect, God and man, divine Principle and idea, must always be the basis of one's prayers or treatments in order to demonstrate in human experience true Christian Science healing.

Some time ago, for example, a woman who was suffering from a malignant growth called upon a Christian Science practitioner for help. Recognizing, through spiritual insight and observation, that the sufferer was willfully inclined and the slave of a degrading habit, the practitioner enlisted the woman's enthusiastic co-operation in overcoming these errors, teaching her how effectually to say "No" to self-will and self-indulgence. Within a comparatively short time, the willful disposition gave way to kindness and the harmful habit to moral courage and strength. Soon, the malignant growth dried up and disappeared without trace. Referring to the modus operandi of spiritual healing, Paul wrote: "Be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

This reflection of divine Love is the power which resolves all things into harmony. It brings plenty out of poverty, sweetness out of bitterness, loveliness out of deformity, and light out of darkness. He who is truly loving is never in want, whether of health, happiness, home, friends, employment, or money. By thinking lovingly, speaking lovingly, and acting lovingly, his every need is supplied. He who loves, harms no one. He is the friend of all mankind. To him the way of the cross (obedience to Truth and Love) is the path to peace, and its reward is the crown of rejoicing.

No truer and more illuminating lines have ever been written than those which will be found on page 248 of Science and Health, where Mrs. Eddy says, "Let unselfishness, goodness, mercy, justice, health, holiness, love—the kingdom of heaven—reign within us, and sin, disease, and death will diminish until they finally disappear."

Referring to this all-healing, all-protecting, all-providing Truth, this idea of present spiritual perfection, which is forever knocking for admittance to your consciousness and mine, the Revelator writes, "Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me." Now, the question is, Are you willing to listen? Are you ready to open the door, I will come in to him, and this divine idea? Are you prepared to entertain Christian Science and become acquainted with its unlimited possibilities? These are momentous questions, my friends, and the only one who can answer them is you.

Blind Faith In Science Leading Man Astray Says Dr. Maier

St. Louis, February 19—Indicting credulous minds that readily accept fantastic fiction, but stubbornly reject Biblical truth, Dr. Walter A. Maier today made a nation-wide radio appeal for a fairer appreciation of Christianity's claims and a deeper trust in its verities.

Over a special network of sixty-six stations that bring him more than 1000 letters every day, Dr. Maier called attention to some of the extravagant theories to which the American public has given its enthusiastic endorsement. He cited Richard Adams Locke, a New York feature writer who in the last century reported the telescopic discovery that men with wings like bats inhabited the moon. Locke described them as four feet high covered with copper colored hair, with wings composed of a thin membrane, and claimed that telescopes had revealed the great temple of the moon, its polished sapphire roof with nearby companies of man bats eating, flying, bathing. "As grotesque as all this was," Dr. Maier continued, "it was accepted as the truth by one of the greatest newspapers in the country, translated into the French and greeted as a tremendous scientific advance. Subsequent exposure, however, revealed that the whole story, which even some great minds took seriously, was a palpable fraud."

Tracing the history of scientific mistakes, Dr. Maier emphasized that while men of great learning have often rejected the Scriptures, demanding proof for Biblical assertions, they have accepted the most grotesque speculations without any semblance of proof. He cited the hundreds of millions of dollars lost through fraud and poor investment as widespread evidence of popular willingness to accept the word of man contrasted with skepticism's rejection of the Word of God.

Turning to American church life, the speaker charged that too often religious exercises are merely rote and ritual, without the basis of a deep rooted faith. The need of the hour, he maintained, is not for larger churches but for stronger faith, not for greater ecclesiastical treasures but greater individual trust, not for confidence in human leadership but in unswerving conviction in the blessing of God's leadership.

Bright Feathers of Birds

In most species of birds the males wear the bright feathers and the females wear very humdrum garb. The Phalaropes, a group of shore birds, reverse this procedure. Phalarope females are very brightly colored—and the males wear drab feathers. Not only that, says the American Wildlife Institute, but the males take care of the eggs while they're hatching and even tend to the young after they're born.

Sectional Tourneys Open Next Week

by GERALD A. McELROY

The long grind of tournaments is under way and in four weeks a state champion will be crowned down at Champaign. This week the first in the series, the district tournaments will be held. Down at Wheaton the Palatine Pirates met the Hinsdale Red Devils last night and the winner is scheduled to meet Leyden of Franklin Park tonight in the second game after Bensenville takes on Wheaton. The finals will be Friday. Wednesday night's results appear on the front page in a special bulletin.

At Wauconda the district meet opened last night with Grant trying to take Richmond, Hebron opposing McHenry, and Barrington meeting Northbrook. Tonight Ela meets Antioch and Wauconda tackles the Grant-Richmond winner. Tonight's winners meet each other in the semi-finals Friday in the second game of the evening. The first game will feature winners of the Hebron-McHenry and Barrington-Northbrook first round contests. The final is carded for Saturday night.

On the basis of past records and according to the rating of the coaches which resulted in the seeding of teams the semi-finals shape up as Ela vs. Wauconda and Hebron vs. Barrington. The Cook County Herald picks Ela to meet Hebron in the final and the latter to take the title.

Next week at Waukegan the regional tourney will open Wednesday with the two best Northwest Conf. teams, Warren and Niles, pitted against three good Suburban League teams if dope runs true to form. Arlington, Libertyville and Lake Forest of the N. W. Conference who go to the regional do not appear to be in the class with the other five competitors but may spring an upset for which tournaments are so often noted.

The Waukegan bracketing follows:

Wednesday, March 1
1. 7:30—Warren vs. Arlington Heights.
2. 8:30—Waukegan vs. Lake Forest.

Thursday, March 2
3. 7:30—New Trier vs. Libertyville.
4. 8:30—Highland Pk. vs. Niles Center.

Friday, March 3
5. 7:30—winner games 1 and 2.
6. 8:30—Winner games 3 and 4.

Saturday, March 4
7. 8 —Winner games 5-6 (champ.)

Palatine--18 Arlington--15 Is Cage Record

15 Years of Play Ends With Pirates Holding 3 Game Edge

Tracing back in the records of games between Palatine and Arlington since the 1925-26 season when the Northwest conference was started the totals show 33 games played between the rival schools of which Palatine has won 18 and Arlington 15. Palatine has a slight edge in points with 719 to 694 for the Cardinals.

With but few exceptions the scores have been very close. The only really one sided scores number five. In the season of 1927-28 Arlington won by counts of 40-21 and 25-9. Palatine won by a 30-13 in the 1926-27 season. In January 1938, Palatine registered the most one-sided victory of the series 42-20 and came back in December, 1938, to win by 39-20. Until last season's one-sided victory there had been a string of 13 games in a row decided by five points or less.

Lightweight records are not complete back of the 1927-28 season. Since then Arlington has won 15 and Palatine 7. Probably Arlington's margin would be even greater were earlier records available. Arlington has scored 501 to Palatine's 380 in lightweight ball. Arlington's most decisive victory was the 43-7 score in 1930-31 while Palatine's most prized victory was last year 1938 when the Pirate champs won 35-16.

If Conference Had Cup 'Tornadoes' Should Get It

Records Show Arlington Lights Doubled Score Against All Opponents

Arlington's lightweights completed their final Northwest conference schedule last Friday night with a 44-17 victory over Leyden. Their final standing will depend on whether Lake Forest plays and wins its two postponed games.

Arlington dropped only one of its ten games, an overtime contest at Niles. Lake Forest could win all ten, as it is at present undefeated or it could leave the race undecided by not playing out its schedule.

After a slow start in the three pre-Christmas games, the Green Tornadoes came to life against Bensenville and Libertyville, winning both games by comfortable margins to reach the half way mark in third place. The team hit its stride then and ran over its opponents in the remainder of the schedule. In those five games Arlington averaged 40.2 points to 16.1 for the opposition. The season's average was 32.2 to 15.6. The highest score was 48-10, against Leyden, and the greatest margin of victory came in that game.

Records kept of shots attempted, show a season's average of 24%. Opposing teams averaged 13.6%. Again the last five games, when the team was really in stride, show a great increase over the first five. Arlington shot an even 30%, while opposing teams continued exactly as before with 13.6%.

With a large squad in uniform for every game, few players had an opportunity to pile up individual scoring records. Oefelein made a season's high for a single game with 16 points in the first Leyden contest, scoring 13 of them in one quarter. Peters scored 14 in the second Leyden game. Thoman hit 11 against Palatine, and Bublitz 10 against Libertyville. Henken and Busse were also high-point in other games. This distribution explains why no defense was able to stop the team.

Arlington Hts. and Warren Meet in State Opener

Five Northwest conference teams, and all of them members of the newly formed Northeast conference are scheduled to do their tournament duties at Waukegan this next week. Two of them, Gurnee and Arlington Heights, are scheduled against each other. All the other drew for their opponents members of the strong Suburban League.

The Gurnee-Arlington game may turn out to be an interesting one since Gurnee is "in" as the Northwest conference season winner. And Arlington has had possibilities all season, which they have seldom capitalized on, yet it is very possible that they may be able to give Warren a real run for their money in this final effort.

This game is scheduled for the first evening's play next week on Wednesday at 7:30. It will be followed by the Waukegan-Lake Forest game at 8:30, insuring an evening of interest.

The Thursday evening events will be between New Trier and Libertyville and Highland Park and Niles Center. The winners of the Wednesday games will oppose each other on Friday as will also the winners of the Thursday night games.

Final Game for Arlington Friday At Crystal Lake

While most of the Northwest conference teams are engaged in their tournament preliminary duties this week, Arlington is winding up its regular basketball season with a non-conference tilt at Crystal Lake Friday night. Before their early season collapse the Cardinals defeated Crystal Lake 34-32 on the local floor. Arlington played one of its best games of the year and only played back to their form of this contest once or twice all winter.

Neither team has had a very successful season so it is problematical how to foretell just what the result will be. All season long the Cardinals have battled hard, but vainly, to get into the win column more often. They have lacked just the final kick many times. Perhaps they can wind up their regular season as they started with a win over the "Lakers."

Most of the Arlington sick-list boys are back in school this week, but it is questionable as to their ability to be in form for this final game.

Roselle Wins, Loses But Still In Second Place

Three Lutheran Fives In Scramble For Second Position

By ALBERT BRODNAN

Roselle kept in the running by defeating Arlington 29-26 in the Lutheran basketball league at the Arlington high school gymnasium.

Arlington led at the half 10-9 and 22 to 18 at the end of the third quarter, but they did a complete fade-out the last quarter and Roselle nosed them out mainly through the efforts of Shaw, who scored five points in the last quarter. Arlington committed a grave error by a bad pass in the last couple of seconds.

G. Dierking was high point man with nine points and he probably would have scored more if he had not gone out on personal fouls.

Red Weisgerber gave a fine exhibition of basketball for about four minutes in the third quarter when he hit five buckets in a hurry but then he was satisfied and played the kind of ball the rest of the team was playing. Red was high with 12 points and Laseke ran second with 10 points, but he should have made much more.

Palatine Takes Overtime

Palatine won an overtime thriller from Glenview by the score of 32-26. It was a slow game for a half but in the second half the teams showed some pep. The score was 22-20 at the end of the third quarter and ended 26-26.

In the overtime Henricks hit two baskets and C. Haemker hit one while Glenview did not have a chance to score.

"Pete" Meyer again played a swell game for Glenview and he was the high point man with 11 points. His brother, Art, again ran second with 9 points.

This defeat for Glenview puts Roselle in second place all by themselves. Glenview was handicapped in size and they really could have used A. Bueter, their six foot center. Henrichs and Helms shared high honors with 10 points apiece.

Itasca Wins Easily

Itasca using their second team most of the game, beat River Grove 38-12.

Elberts was high point man with 12 points, although he only played a half. Itasca led 23-10 at the half and increased the lead to 32 to 10 at the end of the third quarter.

Grandt played the best game for River Grove, and was high point man with 5 points.

Norwood Park Upsets

Norwood Park played their best game of the year and handed Roselle their second defeat 35-31. It looked as if Roselle was going to have an easy game when they took a 18-7 lead at the half.

Norwood Park came out with a lot of pep and completely outplayed Roselle the second half. Norwood Park made 20 points in the third quarter to take a 27-24 lead. In this quarter Stan Fill hit the basket for 12 points. Stan Fill led both teams with 17 points and he is a tough man in anybody's league.

Larson hit the bucket for 8 points for second high. Wally Fill played a nice game at guard and he seemed to be the spark plug of their team.

G. Dierking played a steady game and scored 15 points. This defeat puts Roselle in a tie with Glenview and Itasca. This second round is an open race for second place.

Des Plaines Has Scare

Des Plaines won a real hard fought game 35-34 against Park Ridge's "cellar" team. Ladendorf hit a shot from the corner with 20 seconds to go to win the game. After this Brunger had two free throws and missed them both because of the pressure. The game was close all the way, Des Plaines led 19-18 at the half and 26-26 at the third quarter.

Brunger played his best game of the year, hitting 9 baskets and two free throws for 20 points. Brunger was moved up to forward after he played guard all year around and he handled the job swell.

Kaitschuk made 15 points to lead Des Plaines. Ladendorf really plays a swell game at guard. It looks like Des Plaines will run off with the title.

Bob Kelton's Club Score 16 Straight Victories For Season

Warren high school's Blue Devils today held the undisputed championship of the Northwest conference basketball race.

Coach Bob Kelton's club scored its tenth straight conference conquest Friday night to ring down the curtain on a highly successful campaign. Victim of Warren's all-victorious conquerors Friday evening was Wauconda, which bowed by a 35-13 score.

Zimmerman, McCann, Nelson, Goetz and Thompson, the Warren starting five, had Wauconda 20-5 at the half Friday night and 32-9 starting the final quarter.

Sixteen in a Row!

For the entire season, Warren has scored 16 consecutive victories. The Blue Devils will play in the state regional tourney at Waukegan starting March 1.

In Friday night's prelim, Warren lights won by a score of 31 to 12. It was their seventh win against three defeats in conference games. Lineups:

Arlington Lights Play Like Champs

Flu or No Flu, They Pile Up 44-17 Victory

Arlington's Green Tornadoes bowed out of conference competition for the 1938-39 season with a handsome 44-17 victory over Leyden's Eaglets Friday night.

Overcoming a stubborn defense and holding well in check the best efforts of Leyden's much improved offense, Arlington led 17-5 at the half and 29-11 at the third quarter. Seven baskets and a free throw in the fourth quarter increased the margin.

The star of a well-played game was little Jack Peters, whose offense and defense were completely satisfactory to the most exacting critic. In addition to pouring in seven baskets in ten shots, he rifled four floor-length passes to freshman Herman Becker, each good for two points as Becker hooked them in. Becker scored also on the only other shot he took. Play by the rest of the team was top-notch.

Prueter, Leyden center, scored two baskets and played rebounds like a veteran. Smith was high-point with three field goals and two free throws. Matusek also played some good ball, but was kept from scoring by Arlington's guards.

Victory Just Out of Reach for Cardinals

Arlington almost did it last Friday night. They almost pulled out with a victory in their last conference game of the season. As it was they finally bowed to a sharp-shooting Leyden team 39-35.

Both teams were handicapped with men out of the game due to illness. It is probable, however, that Arlington suffered more on this score than did the victors. One of the Doss brothers was the only man absent from the Eagles lineup. Eddie Schulenberg, Fritz Kehe, O'Hagan and Folkman were not with the Cardinals last Friday. Although the Cardinals missed Schulenberg and Kehe, it was the loss of O'Hagan that hurt most. He has split the work with Hull at the back guard position this winter. Hull played a fine game at guard and Arlington was leading when he went out of the contest on fouls. It was here that O'Hagan would have come in very handy. The complexion of the game changed when it was necessary to make a shift here and Leyden banged in three field goals in rapid succession to put the game away.

Other necessary substitutions late in the first half, were costly to the Cards. Leading 18-14 a few minutes before the half, some of the Arlington substitutes got mixed up on defense and permitted Bogacz to shoot three times in succession while wide open under the basket. These six points plus a free throw by him, put the home team out in front at the half 21-19.

Becker led Arlington's scoring and was high point man for the two teams. Playing one of his best games, he notched five field goals and a free throw. He connected for the first field goal of the game and gathered in four more nifties in the second half.

McNerney's four goals in the second half was the vital blow to Arlington's hopes. The front line defense slipped up and permitted McNerney to ease in for three beauties which were the points that iced the game away in the fourth quarter.

Palatine Defeats Northbrook In Final Home Game

Lights Give Up After 13-4 Lead To Lose 20-18

Palatine split a doubleheader with Northbrook Saturday night in the last home games of the season. The Pirates heavies led all the way to win a 25-18 victory in the main event. The lights lost the curtain raiser 20-18 in an overtime. Both schools had been hard hit by flu and their teams were below form for that reason and lack of practice. Northbrook was hardest hit in this respect.

Palatine played an above average game in the main contest except from the stand point of shooting. At times some nice passing was executed but the shooting attempts which followed were usually missed. Palatine made but 14 percent of their shots while averaging over 20 percent for the season.

Lead At Half 13-9

The Pirates took a 13-9 first half lead and increased the margin in the same proportion in the period after the intermission. Scoring was evenly divided. Hollinger scored six points and Buenzow and Hahnfeldt five for Palatine. Maihack and Orlandini made four for the visitors.

The Palatine lightweights had things their own way in the first half, gaining a 13-4 lead, but came back with the most listless playing of the season, allowing the visitors to overtake them in the closing minutes of the game.

Klein made five baskets in the last quarter for Northbrook who held a 17-16 lead with eight seconds to play. Howes' free throw turned the game into an overtime affair. Day of Northbrook sank a free throw early in the overtime, but Palatine had three such attempts finally hitting one about 30 seconds before the period ended. It was Howes again who made it and the score was 18-18. Then Klein caged a long goal to win for Northbrook. It was his seventh as he scored 15 of the visitors' 20 points.

Mac Says

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

The strength of the Northwest Conference in basketball will be put to the test this week and next when four of the leading teams meet the representatives of three other suburban leagues. Palatine, third place team of the N. W. conference, was scheduled to oppose Hinsdale, third ranking quintet of the West Suburban League, in the district meet at Wheaton last night. Tonight Bensenville, first division team of the N. W. loop takes on Wheaton, second place team of the Little Seven league, which for so long, has been dominated by Dundee.

NILES MEETS HIGHLAND PARK

Next week at Waukegan the Niles Center team which has been unbeaten since the conference opener, takes the floor against Highland Park, one of the better teams of the big Suburban League. Also at Waukegan the conference champion Warren team is slated to tackle Waukegan if the first round runs true to form and the Blue Devils beat Arlington. Of course, the membership of the local conference has schools of much smaller size than the other leagues and if as many as two out of the four we have mentioned defeat the big schools, the prestige of the loop will certainly experience a rise. We believe that this is very possible. Personally we like both Warren's and Niles' chances at the Waukegan Regional.

PICK DUNDEE TO REPEAT

A Champaign newspaper rates the teams of the state in view of the coming state tourney and places Dundee first; Morton of Cicero, second; and Glenbard of Glen Ellyn, third. Morton and Glenbard compete in the same regional at York.

FLU MAY CAUSE UPSETS

Sickness may play a big factor in the district and regional tournaments. Many games have been postponed the past two weeks and in those that have been played few teams have had all their players or have had much practice. For that reason it is our guess that there may be more tournament upsets than usual. The strain of successive tournament games may tell in the case of boys still recovering from the effects of flu.

MEET FIRST DEFEAT

Hebron, the team this column picks to win the Wauconda District Tourney, met their first setback in 18 games last week at Crystal Lake 26-19. They had downed the Lakers on two previous occasions, one being the finals of the county tournament. Capt. Johnson is Hebron's only senior player.

WARREN UNDISPUTED CHAMPS

Warren gave a convincing demonstration Friday of why they are the Conference Champs when they smothered Wauconda 35-13. Of course, Wauconda was minus a couple of boys due to flu, but Herrmann, the coach, says that the Blue Devils coached by Kelton are much stronger than when they met his team early in January. It is the second year in a row that the league has had an undefeated basketball team and both times one of the smaller schools has turned the trick.

ARLINGTON HITS 40%

Arlington's lights coached by Ray Hayes closed the season Friday at Leyden with a sensational exhibition of basket shooting. The Tornadoes made 40 percent of their attempts. Peters, flashy little guard, caged seven field goals in 10 attempts, Koenig hit three out of five, and a freshman named Becker, sent into the fray near its close, scored five times in as many tries.

HAYES' RECORD GOOD

This is the second team in three years that Hayes has coached to a record of but one defeat in an entire season of conference play. Niles was the only team to come close to the Arlington boys, nosing them out 21-19 in an overtime. In the 1936-37 season Hayes' team was beaten only by Bensenville, the undefeated champ.

AN ALL-OPPONENTS TEAM

The picking of all star teams is frowned upon by the Northwest Conference. Personally we do not think it does the boys any good to be picked on all-conference teams particularly if they are underclassmen. However, in a very unofficial way we wish to name the boys who have played best in conference games against Palatine this year. In such a group we would pick Watson of Barrington, Mathews of Bensenville, and Gleason of Ela as forwards; Dickson of Wauconda and Wilkins of Barrington, centers; and Schroeder and Knigge of Ela, and Shepard of Barrington, guards.

EBY BEST IN CONFERENCE

Of this opponents' group we do not hesitate to name Schroeder of Ela as the outstanding player. Along with him we would name Boyk and Eby of Niles and Zimmerman and McCann of Warren as the best we have seen in the conference this season. What a quintet that would make and we rate Eby of Niles the best of the lot. We feel that Buenzow, back guard on our own team, rates a spot on any all-conference team that might be picked this year in the league.

DEDICATE NEW GYM

Niles Township High School played their first game in the new gym Friday night following appropriate ceremonies in which C. W. Whitten and H. V. Porter, managers of the Illinois High School Athletic Association, had a prominent part. The gym is 84 by 50 and one of the finest on the north side of Chicago. Niles, by the way, has demonstrated that they have one of the best teams in the suburban area. Coach Isaacson has a record to be proud of even if the Trojans did not win the title.

LEAD SCORING

Two Niles boys, Boyk and Eby, finished the season as leader and runner up in the individual scoring race in the league. Boyk scored 143 points in 10 games and Eby made 121. Together the pair collected more points than half the teams in the league. Below we are giving our readers a game by game summary of the scoring of these two "hot shot" Trojans.

	Boyk	Eby
Leyden	14	6
Arlington	7	17
Barrington	10	7
Lake Forest	16	13
Leyden	13	9
Libertyville	27	12
Barrington	20	14
Bensenville	13	15
Lake Forest	18	16
Antioch	9	12
Totals	143	121

THIRD PERFECT RECORD

Warren's clean sweep is the third in conference history. Last year Ela won all 10 games and in the 1935-36 season Coach Jack Martin's Libertyville Wildcats mopped up on a 12 game conference schedule and also swept through the League tournament by top heavy scores. That was the team that featured Isaacson, Madden, Jaeger, and others. It was Martin's last season at Libertyville before taking over his present duties as Athletic Director and Head Coach at La Grange High School.

Compare Cost of Raised or Purchased Cows

"The farmers in Cook county both raise and purchase their milk cows," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes. "As to which system is the best, farmers differ and we are not certain under various conditions that what one system might work better than another.

"However, the following data, which was furnished us by the University of Illinois Dairy Department may be of interest. In northern Illinois some 76 farmers that we find the cost of raising calves to milk cows to be as follows:

EXPENSES RAISING A HEIFER TO 24 MONTHS

Feed and bedding	$ 76.08	$	$
Chore labor	10.40
Interest on investment	4.45
Shelter and equipment	9.77
Other costs	3.76
Gross cost per heifer		104.46
DEDUCTIONS:
Young stock sold	17.92
Manure	4.29
Hides	.05
Total deductions per heifer		22.26
Net cost of raising a heifer to 24 months			82.20
Estimated value of heifer at freshening date			77.53
Loss			4.75

"In other words it apparently costs $4.75 more to raise a heifer to 24 months than her actual value.

Raised Versus Purchased Cows

"To determine the value of raised cattle as opposed to purchased cows we have the following information that is interesting:

Cause of Sale	Raised	Pur.
Low production	19.5	34.5
Udder Trouble	5.5	14.5
Abortion	2.2	10.8
Failure to breed	3.4	18.5
Other causes	4.1	8.2
As Milkers	65.3	13.5

Turnover where herd replacements were purchased, once every 2.6 years.

Turnover where herd replacements were raised, once every 4 years.

"In other words it appears that almost twice as many purchased cows have to be sold from low production than raised cows. Udder troubles are almost three times as many. Abortion is five times as high. Failure to get with calf, which is associated with abortion, is about five times as high. Other causes is twice as high, and lastly the raised herds are able to sell five times as many cows as milkers as purchased cows can be sold as milkers. Since the turnover in raised herds is once in every four years as against replacements in purchased herds which is once in every 2.6 years it is quite evident that the $4.76 difference in raised calves makes raised calves much cheaper than purchased cows. If we may believe these figures as set out the difference in the cost of raising a calf is insignificant when compared with the performance of that calf in later years.

Dairy Herd Testing

"One of the best ways to determine the value of the calves that we are raising is through Dairy Herd Improvement Work. Since the cost is about 12 cents a cow per month or $1.50 per year for testing, the value of this service is intensified."

Blame Vegetable Growers for Low Prices

Graded Vegetables Necessary If Top Price Are To Be Asked

George Carneill, a buyer on South Water Market, at the recent Vegetable Growers School, made this statement, "I handle only 25% locally grown goods and 75% is shipped in. The reason for this is that I cannot get 100% graded goods in the Chicago territory. I used to handle 100% locally grown produce, but I had to quit it because the market was so unsatisfactory for ungraded vegetables that it was ruining my business. The market would rather have a uniform pact than the harvest run goods that we so often get.

"It appears to me that a grower in Cook county who waits a year to grow a crop may spoil his chance for profit by scooping his harvest into an old basket and expect the market to buy it at a good price.

"The Cook county growers competition is within the radius of about 300 miles. This competition has learned that nondescript material can be bought and not be at a disadvantage with the produce from Cook county. That is the reason why so much trucked in vegetables come to Chicago. If the farmers want to get rid of this competition let them try grading their crops for a few years and they will find that Chicago is a good market and will pay for good produce. The growers from a distance who shipped in graded stuff are getting the top sales and too many of our farmers are getting the low graded sales.

"If there is any one thing that I am confident of, that is that a lot of our marketing problems come from producing the kind of stuff that scalpers like to handle and that is ruining the producers chance for a margin of profit. I would like for Cook county farmers to grade their crops so that I can get back to handling more vegetables from Cook county than I am at the present time."

Bowling News At Northwest Alleys

Alley Owners Meet At Barrington

Representatives of 100 alleys located Northwest of Chicago, extending as far north as Waukegan and McHenry, met last Wednesday at Bank Tavern, Barrington, where following a luncheon, many matters of interest were discussed. Barrington will soon have eight new alleys.

Arlington Heights—

by HERB HAMMERL

There was plenty of noise at the alleys Monday night, and plenty of upsets. The team scores as a whole were pretty good and are steadily getting better.

On 1 and 2, Blatz took two games from Cafe after losing the first game. The old lefthander came through with 597 for the high series, but he had to split the dollar with Marty Engelking on 223 apiece.

On 3 and 4 the Elevators took the odd game; the Hamms are now in a triple tie for third place with the Hamms and Hartmanns.

J. O. was hot again and picked up his fourth 600 in a row, 611 and got the "buck" on 239. Alex the Great, got 604 for a change and Dixie had 594 for Hamms.

The Old Red Head led the Hartmann Shoes to three wins over El Rand. Red pounded out 646, which included 268 for high game of the season so far. Frank Szasz got 618 for El Rand, but he didn't get much help.

ILLINOIS HIGH SCHOOLS FACE SERIOUS PROBLEM

Districts supporting high schools have faced a most critical situation in the past few years. Since 1927 their enrollment has increased by 40 per cent, while the assessed valuation of property in Illinois has decreased by 40 per cent, according to the Illinois Education Association. The State Legislature will be asked to consider a solution to this problem, stated Irving F. Pearson, Secretary of the association. High schools have not received regular support from the State Distributive Fund. Although emergency aid to hard-pressed high schools has relieved the situation to some extent in a number of districts, general grants to all high schools and non-high school districts, such as is now provided to elementary schools, is necessary to relieve the situation.

Karsten's Girls Now A Winning Team; May Take Tournament Yet

by CHARLES O'HAGAN

Arlington's girls basketball team, the Karstens Morticians won their second game in the Evening-American tournament. The Arlington girls defeated the strong Chicago Co-ads by a 25-21 score. The Karstens team played their best ball of the year with team play featuring their attack.

The sparkplug of the team was Brodnan leading the scoring with 4 baskets and a free toss as well as playing her usual driving game both on offense and defense.

Gawthrop filled in capably at forward and would really be a standout with her hook passing and shooting if she would learn to relax and just play her normal game. Boyles reached an all time high for all around play, her defense and pass feeding were the tops, being more like the Boyles of past years. Behrens played her best game of the year. Some fans and no doubt Georgianna herself, may have thought she had an off night because she failed to hit the hoop with her usual regularity, but from the coache's viewpoint her defense, passing and generalship were just what the girls needed to weld them into a winning aggregation.

Gloria Paddock on her last three games, has given definite proof of at last realizing her full potentialities. She seems to have gained the ease and confidence that will best bring forth her natural abilities. Her defense and passing were definitely first class, let her add a long shooting ability to her game and she will be a standout.

Karstens continued to mix up her style of play, at one part of the game she lags then in the winking of an eye will put over a play that glitters with star dust. If Karstens can regain her consistency of the early part of the season, she will prove an important cog in the final drive for tournament honors.

Gieseke played an unusually fine game under the basket and in feeding the ball down court. She, like Paddock, must add a long shot to hr bag of tricks, this coupled with her drive under the basket, will make her a decided threat from any position.

If the girls can take the next game they will probably play an outstanding opponent at the Madison Casino for the right to play in the championship game. If they work together as in the game just passed, they can't help but win.

Soldier Lads To Pit Cage Strength Against Smith-Dawson Quintet

Prospect Heights quintet will meet the Battery "E" 61st Coast Artillery team, leader of the Red league, at Ft. Sheridan next Wednesday, at the Arlington high school gym.

The Battery E boys feature a fast breaking under the basket game. In Craig, their captain, they have one of the most versatile men at the Fort. He dominates the play whether feeding the ball, shooting or following the shots of teammates. Pennington and Prochaska have also proved themselves capable. This team has defeated the best representatives of Great Lakes 4 out of 5.

The Smith-Dawson team continued to drink from the bitter cup of defeat when they had Palatine as their guest last week. For a period in the last quarter, it seemed like they were going to emerge from their doldroms and cop a victory, but their attack bogged down just when they reached striking distance. Perhaps by the time the Ft. Sheridan boys arrived they will have found a combination for victory.

Bensenville Alumni To Play Des Plaines

Bensenville Alumni basketball teams will play again this Sunday at the Bensenville gymnasium. The heavyweights will meet Des Plaines Lutheran five while the lights will oppose Elmhurst.

The Des Plaines Lutheran team is led by Skibbe and Kaitchuck, two high scoring forwards. The Des Plaines team is playing their best ball of the season at present and are on top of the Lutheran league. The Bensenville heavies are beginning to click after a slow start.

First game starts at 2:30 o'clock.

Death by Lightning

Some animals seem more susceptible to death by lightning than human beings. In many cases on record, says Collier's Weekly, a flash has killed only one man in a crowd, while other similar flashes have killed all the animals in a large group. As examples, 288 sheep perished from a single flash in an open field in Germany, 150 pigs met their death in Belgium and 340 sheep were killed in France.

Local Boy's In Golden Gloves

On the night of Februarv 15, five boys from the local high school made their debuts as boxers in the Golden Gloves tournament held at the Merigold Gardens in Chicago.

Although these lads had little or no experience in the ring they all put up a presentable fight.

Henry Nichols showed the best form, both on the offense and the defense. His straight lefts kept Richard Stewart, a C.Y.O. boxer at bay until Nichols finally put over a slashing right early in the second round to put his man down for the count of ten. Then, again that same evening Nichols beat Thomas Filler, who had also won a previous match in the 118 pound class, by the judge's decision. The next night, however, Nichols met defeat at the hands of Horace West, a YMCA representative. Although Nichols lost this bout, it was close all the way and Henry came through without a scratch.

In the 135 pound class Wilbur Quinn outpointed Richard Roche after three rounds of fighting. Again the fight was close.

Brendan Roche had to give in to a technical knock-out in the second round because of a sock on the nose. Brenden looked good up to this point, but the punch on the nose hindered his breathing.

The next fighter from the Heights was Hugo Philippe. He fought a more experienced fighter from the C.Y.O. and had him floored in the second round. Due to his opponent's experience he was able to keep covered up and to be on his feet at the end of the fight. Hugo really gave him a working over and had he had a little more experience he would have disposed of him easily in the second round. Philippe fractured his thumb in this fight and was not allowed to compete the next night.

Next on the program was Louis Brodnan. This bout proved to be somewhat of a comedy skit. Brodnan was down 17 times in two rounds. On each occasion he went down from his own momentum as he swung and missed. Louis lost the fight on a technical knockout but in reality he took the least punishment. He landed several "roundhouse" punches and if he had had more experience it might have been a different story.

All in all the boys had a good time, made a good performance, and no one received the slightest injury.

Niles Dedicates New Gym With Victory Over Lake Forest

Niles dedicated their new gymnasium last Friday night by handing Lake Forest a 48-28 trouncing in the heavyweight game with Boyk and Eby, Trojan aces, collecting 18 and 16 points respectively. Isaacson's second place winners in the conference went to work early, piling up a half time lead of 24-10 on the visitors.

Lake Forest lights captured their ninth straight victory and about clinched the league title by beating Niles 33-23. The junior Lakers have only Leyden to defeat for a clear title.

Saturday night Niles concluded the season with a double victory over Antioch by scores of 43-31 and 32-14. Niles heavies won nine straight after losing the opener at Leyden by a two point margin. They meet Highland Park in the regional tournament at Waukegan next Thursday.

'The American's Creed'

"The American's Creed," by William Tyler Page, is: "I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes. I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its Constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies."

Radio star Alice Hill, the "Betty" in the "Betty and Bob" programs, braves the elements to start putting her boat in trim for exhibition in the Tenth Annual Chicago National Boat and Sports Show which will be held on Navy Pier, February 26 through March 5. Don't let the corn cob pipe fool you—it's just the nautical touch.
